PROFESSIONAL FELLOWS EXCHANGE PROGRAM

An Exchange Program for Emerging Leaders in Morocco and Egypt Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

REQUIREMENTS/ INSTRUCTIONS

Please also review the Program Summary and Participant Application Form

<ul> <li>□ Be between the ages of 25 and 40 as of September 1, 2012</li> <li>□ Be highly proficient in written and oral English, self-directed, able to work effectively in a cross-cultural setting, and have demonstrated leadership abilities. Interpreting and translating services will not be provided.</li> <li>□ Be actively involved in the legislative process and/or policy-making through work in government, civic education organizations, citizen advocacy groups, political parties or election monitoring organizations.</li> <li>□ Be able to participate in the program from October, 2012 through February, 2013 including:         <ul> <li>□ Participating in online discussions from September 2012 - February 2013 and beyond.</li> <li>○ Traveling to the United States for 4-5 weeks in October 2012*</li> <li>○ Implementing a legislative and/or policy-based project upon your return home.</li> <li>○ Participating with the U.S. participants when they visit your country in January, 2013</li> <li>○ Attending a program closing conference in Egypt or Morocco, location TBD.</li> <li>□ Have regular access to the internet throughout the program period;</li> <li>□ Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.</li> </ul> </li> <li>*Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.</li> <li>*TO APPLY, SUBMIT IN ENGLISH:</li> <li>□ A completed Participant Application Form;</li> <li>□ A current résumé or CV;</li> <li>□ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;</li> <li>□ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;</li> <li>□ The "Contact Information for References" form for two referen</li></ul>	Applica	ants must:
<ul> <li>□ Be highly proficient in written and oral English, self-directed, able to work effectively in a cross-cultural setting, and have demonstrated leadership abilities. Interpreting and translating services will not be provided.</li> <li>□ Be actively involved in the legislative process and/or policy-making through work in government, civic education organizations, citizen advocacy groups, political parties or election monitoring organizations.</li> <li>□ Be able to participate in the program from October, 2012 through February, 2013 including:         <ul> <li>□ Participating in online discussions from September 2012 - February 2013 and beyond.</li> <li>□ Traveling to the United States for 4-5 weeks in October 2012*</li> <li>□ Implementing a legislative and/or policy-based project upon your return home.</li> <li>□ Participating with the U.S. participants when they visit your country in January, 2013</li> <li>□ Attending a program closing conference in Egypt or Morocco, location TBD.</li> <li>□ Have regular access to the internet throughout the program period;</li> <li>□ Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.</li> </ul> </li> <li>*Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.</li> <li>*To Apply, Submit in English:</li> <li>□ A completed Participant Application Form;</li> <li>□ A current résumé or CV;</li> <li>□ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;</li> <li>□ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;</li> <li>□ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acqu</li></ul>
□ Be actively involved in the legislative process and/or policy-making through work in government, civic education organizations, citizen advocacy groups, political parties or election monitoring organizations.  □ Be able to participate in the program from October, 2012 through February, 2013 including:  □ Participating in online discussions from September 2012 - February 2013 and beyond.  □ Traveling to the United States for 4-5 weeks in October 2012*  □ Implementing a legislative and/or policy-based project upon your return home.  □ Participating with the U.S. participants when they visit your country in January, 2013  □ Attending a program closing conference in Egypt or Morocco, location TBD.  □ Have regular access to the internet throughout the program period;  □ Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.  *Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.  TO APPLY, SUBMIT IN ENGLISH:  □ A completed Participant Application Form;  □ A current résumé or CV;  □ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;  □ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;  □ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.  □ A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		Be highly proficient in written and oral English, self-directed, able to work effectively in a cross- cultural setting, and have demonstrated leadership abilities. Interpreting and translating services
□ Be able to participate in the program from October, 2012 through February, 2013 including:  ○ Participating in online discussions from September 2012 - February 2013 and beyond.  ○ Traveling to the United States for 4-5 weeks in October 2012*  ○ Implementing a legislative and/or policy-based project upon your return home.  ○ Participating with the U.S. participants when they visit your country in January, 2013  ○ Attending a program closing conference in Egypt or Morocco, location TBD.  □ Have regular access to the internet throughout the program period;  □ Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.  *Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.  *To Apply, Submit in English:  □ A completed Participant Application Form;  □ A current résumé or CV;  □ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;  □ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;  □ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.  □ A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		Be actively involved in the legislative process and/or policy-making through work in government, civic education organizations, citizen advocacy groups, political parties or election monitoring
□ Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.  Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.  To Apply, Submit in English: □ A completed Participant Application Form; □ A current résumé or CV; □ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential; □ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO; □ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests. □ A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		Be able to participate in the program from October, 2012 through February, 2013 including:  O Participating in online discussions from September 2012 - February 2013 and beyond.  O Traveling to the United States for 4-5 weeks in October 2012  O Implementing a legislative and/or policy-based project upon your return home.  O Participating with the U.S. participants when they visit your country in January, 2013  O Attending a program closing conference in Egypt or Morocco, location TBD.
*Airfare, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.  To APPLY, SUBMIT IN ENGLISH:  A completed Participant Application Form;  A current résumé or CV;  A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;  A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;  The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.  A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		Have regular access to the internet throughout the program period;
To APPLY, SUBMIT IN ENGLISH:  A completed Participant Application Form; A current résumé or CV; A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential; A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO; The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests. A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		Interest in collaborating with U.S. participants to implement projects.
<ul> <li>□ A completed Participant Application Form;</li> <li>□ A current résumé or CV;</li> <li>□ A letter of reference from a supervisor or professional colleague who is well acquainted with the applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;</li> <li>□ A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;</li> <li>□ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.</li> <li>□ A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.</li> </ul> APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012 Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:	*Airfa	re, lodging, and per diem is provided for program travel periods.
<ul> <li>applicant's work and/or demonstrated leadership capacity or potential;</li> <li>A letter of approval for participation from the applicant's employer from either the head of the organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;</li> <li>The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.</li> <li>A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.</li> <li>APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012</li> <li>Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:</li> </ul>		A completed Participant Application Form; A current résumé or CV;
organization or its Board President, if employed at an NGO;  □ The "Contact Information for References" form for two references, other than the one submitting the letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.  □ A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:
letter, who are well acquainted with the applicant and/or his or her work and/or educational experiences and interests.  A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:
for wanting to participate in this program.  APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 11, 2012  Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		* **
Applications may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:		A signed, personal statement, no more than two double-spaced pages, stating the applicant's reasons for wanting to participate in this program.
El Sadat Association	Applica	ations may be submitted in person, by mail to the following organization:  Ms. Malaka Rafai  El Sadat Association
28 Samir Mokhtar Street Ard el Golf, Heliopolis
Cairo, Egypt

 $\underline{\text{Or}}$  by e-mail with the subject line "Professional Fellows Exchange Program/Egypt & Morocco" sent to the following people:

Julia Sportolari, Heartland International: Julia@heartlandinternational.c		Julia Sportolari, Heartland International: Julia@heartlandinternational.org
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Telephone: +20 (0)224185567 Fax: +20 (0)224184920

Grand For EGYPTIAN CANDIDATES: Ms. Malaka Refai, ESA: LFPegypt@gmail.com